Frequently Asked Questions about Collecting Signatures

Are copies of the petition available online for download?

No, unfortunately there is no “print at home” option for this petition. Because the entire text of the initiative must be presented to each voter who signs it, the petition is multiple pages long and has been carefully reviewed for precise compliance with the law by our attorneys. Signatures on home-printed copies could jeopardize qualification of the initiative. Please be sure everyone signs an official petition. If you need more copies, just call us: 916-444-9950 or 213-384-9656.

Can I print extra copies of the signature page?

No, only the complete, pre-printed petition may be signed. Signatures on extra pages will not count.

Is it okay to fold the petitions and send them back in any envelope?

Yes. The petitions may be folded to fit in any type of envelope that’s convenient for you. Please mail them back as soon as possible to: Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association, 921 11th Street, Suite 1201, Sacramento, California, 95814. Thank you!

Can this petition be signed online? (I think I did that already.)

No. Electronic signatures on online petitions are never valid to qualify an initiative for the ballot. If you signed an online petition, please sign the physical, official initiative petition so your signature will count.

My petition says, “Valid only for November 2021.” Is it still okay to sign?

Yes, “Valid only for November 2021” (or “December 2021”) applies to the list of major funders that was current as of that date. The petitions are valid for the duration of the signature-gathering effort, which ends in April 2022. Time is flying, so please get the petitions signed by registered voters and send them back to us as soon as you can!

A petitioner's writing went over the line bordering the box. Is that okay?

Yes, as long as the writing is clear and legible and the writing doesn't make another signer's writing unclear, it's okay if a petitioner's writing goes a little over the lines. The "official use only" box on the right must not be filled up, though – the counties need that space. If you're unsure, it's okay to completely cross out an entry and have the voter sign again on another line.

Can I collect signatures from voters in more than one county on the same petition?

No. All the petitions are eventually turned in to the county elections offices to be counted and verified, so all the signers of each petition must be registered voters in that county, or their signature won't count. Use as many different petitions as you need to collect signatures from voters who live in different counties, but make sure that when you write in the name of the county on each petition, all the voters who sign it live in that county.

A voter made a mistake on a line. What do I do?

Do not make corrections on anything a voter wrote. That will make the signature invalid. If you know the voter, you can let them go back and fix an error, but petition circulators may not fix or change anything for the voter. It's important that the entry is legible, so the county workers can compare it to the voter rolls and verify that the person who signed is a registered voter at that address in that county. If you're not sure it's correct or clear, you may cross it out—use a pen or marker to draw a line through the name, address and signature lines in that signature block, and have the voter sign again.

What if a voter isn't sure how their name or address appears on their voter registration?

Voters can check their voter registration by going online to VoterStatus.sos.ca.gov and looking it up. That's the official website of the California Secretary of State. Voters can also update their registration if they have moved. They can go online to RegisterToVote.ca.gov and update everything online, even on their phone. No need to wait in line at the DMV or mail in a form. For convenience, here are the QR codes to go to those sites:

Why is the petition so long?

By law, any time a change to the constitution is proposed in an initiative, the petition must have the complete section of the constitution printed on the petition, not just the sentences that would change.

Can I set up a table in front of a supermarket or in a strip mall?

Possibly. Always ask permission from the store owner or manager, or the mall owner or manager. If they have any questions about the signature-gathering effort, you're welcome to invite them to call us and we'll be happy to talk with them. Our Sacramento office number is 916-444-9950, and the number of the L.A. office is 213-384-9656.

Can you connect me to other volunteers in my area?

Give us a call and we'll try to do that! Our Sacramento office number is 916-444-9950, and the number of the L.A. office is 213-384-9656. We are also setting up an online "bulletin board" forum where volunteers can post messages and exchange information.

Do you have yard signs?

Not yet. We will print yard signs after the measure qualifies for the November 2022 ballot and we know the proposition number.

Can you send me more materials such as pens, flyers and table banners?

Sure! Call us. Our Sacramento office number is 916-444-9950, and the L.A. office is 213-384-9656.

Can someone from Howard Jarvis speak to my group on a Zoom call or in person?

Absolutely, as our schedules permit. Send an email to info@hjta.org with details or call us, 916-444-9950 or 213-384-9656.

How many signatures do we need, and what's the deadline?

The initiative needs 997,139 valid signatures of registered voters to qualify for the November 2022 ballot, so we estimate that we will have to collect 1.3 million signatures to be sure that we make it (signatures will be disqualified if they're duplicates, in the wrong county, not from a registered voter, or not accompanied by the voter's correct address). All signatures MUST be turned in to county officials by April 26, 2022, but we will need time to process and sort the petitions by county, so please mail back all signed petitions to us NO LATER than April 15.

Where should I return the signed petitions?

Mail them to:

Howard Jarvis Taxpayers Association
921 11th Street, Suite 1201
Sacramento, CA 95814
